Gus Macker Tournament a Success for Kalamazoo Cobras

KALAMAZOO, Mich.- August 30, 2016- The Kalamazoo Cobras attended the Gus Macker Tournament this past weekend and brought home a victory.

The Gus Macker Tournament was a 3-on-3-basketball tournament. The Cobras took home a win of one game during the tournament.

The Cobras were also there to volunteer during the tournament, which turned out to be a success.

The Kalamazoo Cobras are a minor league professional basketball team affiliated with the American Basketball Association. They were formerly known as the Kalamazoo Pure.
