Kalamazoo Cobras News Updates

KALAMAZOO, Mich.- October 24, 2016- The Kalamazoo Cobras now have tickets and merchandise for sale, are hosting a signing day for their players on Friday, and have partnered with Loaves and Fishes for the November 5 season opener.

The Cobras are almost ready for their season to begin! Tickets are now on sale for the first three games of the season. Cobras T-shirts and sweatshirts are also on sale. Both tickets and merchandise can be found online at kalamazoocobras.com.

The Cobras will be signing their contracts this Friday at practice. Pictures and videos from signing will be on social media and displayed at games.

The Cobras are excited to announce their partnership with Loaves and Fishes for the season opener. All fans that bring in a canned or nonperishable food item will receive $3 off their ticket price. An anonymous donor has also agreed to match the first 1,000 cans received at the game.

The Kalamazoo Cobras are a minor league professional basketball team affiliated with the American Basketball Association. They were formerly known as the Kalamazoo Pure.
